LITTLE RIVER History Nature Walk

Come join Anne-Marie Lambert and Frederick Law Olmsted (enacted by Gerald Wright), to explore the rich history of the Little River in Cambridge and Belmont.

We will learn about geological, Native American, and farming history, and various pollution challenges since the late 18th century. We will travel along the river, meadow, and forest habitat, home to variety of wildlife and over 40 species of birds.

Meet at 10am at the Acorn Park Drive Parking Lot. Free and open to the public.
