

Walk on the Wild Side with Dave Brown

Tour of the Alewife Reservation, one of the few “urban wilds” left in the Boston metropolitan area and home to an amazing diversity of wildlife

Left and right: Dave Brown; middle: Dave Brown photo of red morph screech owl

Date and time: March 25, 2 pm-3:30 pm

In case of bad weather: March 26, 2 pm-3:30 pm

Where: Meet at the Reservation Parking Lot on Acorn Park Drive (Cambridge, MA).

Program description: Join Tracker-Naturalist David Brown for a wildlife walk in Alewife Reservation. We will look for tracks in mud or snow as well as other evidence of the surprising variety of "wilderness wildlife" that has been found there in the past. Previous walks have discovered sign of beaver, otter, mink, coyote, fisher and both species of native foxes as well as other mammals and birds.

What to bring: A water bottle and appropriate dress for the weather (including sturdy water/snow-proof footwear). This walk is free of cost.

Contact us for more information:

Friends of Alewife Reservation
phone: (617) 290-4864
email: alewifefriends@gmail.com

